Those applying to the Online Master of Studies in Law (MSL) or a graduate certificate program at University of Pittsburgh School of Law are required to submit the following materials:

- Completed application form
- Personal statement
  - The statement should describe your reasons for pursuing an MSL degree and include any information you believe would be helpful to the Admissions Committee in making its decision
- Undergraduate and/or graduate transcripts
  - Transcripts are required from all colleges or universities attended. The transcript should clearly indicate the dates of attendance, the courses taken, the grades received, and the degree conferred. An unofficial transcript is acceptable for review of your application, but after admission, you must submit an official transcript.
  - Unofficial copies of transcripts will be accepted for review purposes. However, if you are admitted, you must provide your official transcripts before starting the program.
  - Applicants must have an undergraduate GPA of 3.0 or higher. Applicants with less than a 3.0 may be considered for provisional admission to the program
- TOEFL, IELTS or Duolingo examinations of English competency within the past two years is required for international students (unless student already holds a U.S. bachelor’s or master’s degree)
- $38 application fee
