

Forge ahead. Earn your graduate certificate online with Pitt Law.

Pitt Law's Online Sports, Entertainment, and Arts Law (SEAL) Certificate helps students advance or begin their careers in the rapidly changing and increasingly intersecting sports, entertainment, and arts industries. To become a standout leader in any of these synergistic sectors, professionals need legal skills relating to labor and employment, intellectual property, finance, distribution, corporate and non-profit law.

Stand apart from your colleagues as the go-to resource for navigating some of the most common legal questions encountered in your sports, entertainment and/or arts career.

Program Benefits

- Learn on your schedule with asynchronous classes
- Complete the program in 10 months
- Learn from experienced, working legal experts who teach and practice sports, entertainment and/or arts law
- Gain access to a valued and diverse network of colleagues and mentors within the Pitt Law and broader Pitt communities
- Build concentrated expertise to work more knowledgeably with lawyers and gain increased legal and policy awareness

Program Structure

- 15 credits
- 100% online
- Can be completed in 10 months

Admissions Requirements

- $38 application fee
- Completed application form
- Bachelor's degree
- Resume
- Personal statement
- Official undergraduate and graduate transcripts from all colleges or universities attended
- TOEFL, IELTS or Duolingo examinations of English competency within the past two years is required for international students (unless student already holds a U.S. bachelor's or master's degree)

For additional information about application materials and the submission process at Pitt Law, visit Pitt Law online.

The Curriculum

Each course in the Sports, Entertainment, and Arts Law program is three credits, totaling 15 credits.

- Introduction to the Law and Business of Sports, Entertainment, and Arts Law (3 Credits)
- Labor & Employment Law in Sports, Entertainment, and Arts (3 Credits)
- Intellectual Property in Sports, Entertainment, and Arts (3 Credits)
- Organization, Finance & Distribution Law in Sports, Entertainment, and Arts (3 Credits)
- Special Topics in Sports, Entertainment, and Arts Law (3 Credits)

MSL Online Combined Programs

Students who successfully complete the Pitt Law SEAL Certificate may apply the 15 credits earned in the online program to the Master of Studies in Law (MSL) degree. This option allows students to earn both the certificate and the MSL in 30 credit hours. Students who decide to pursue the full master's program and complete a certificate program with a 3.0 GPA will be considered for admission.

Bring Valuable Legal Skills to Work

Pitt Law's world-class faculty practice what they teach. Learn from the working professionals and get the legal knowledge you need to forge ahead and make an impact.

To learn more about the SEAL Certificate program, contact an admissions outreach advisor at (412) 668-1491 or by email at onlinepittlaw@law.pitt.edu.